

I want Oprah Winfrey fined for her indecent broadcast on Thurs. 3/18/04. I find it extremely hypocritical of you and you're organization to be on a witch hunt for indecent broadcasts, but are unwilling to fine the worst abusers. This is not a communist country, if someone is offended by programming, they can change the channel or turn it off. What's next, bring back book burnings. Are you and you're government agencies going to start bugging houses to find out who is speaking indecently? Stop the insanity, freedom of speech is a very much a part of what this great nation is founded on. I will not vote for George W Bush if this nonsense continues. Trust me John Kerry is not the best replacement, but what about Ralph Nader? Does that scare you more? I will continue to write you until this madness of a witch hunt stops. It is not our fault that you guys got offended by seeing Janet Jackson's breast. One last question, why are the same news organizations chastizing the indecency in America, the same ones showing the programs on their channels. Please fine Oprah Winfrey, or let everyone else alone. HYPOCRITS!!!!!!!

Stop deciding what is good for me and my family,
